The City of Phoenix, in cooperation with the Arizona Department of Transportation and the Federal Highway Administration, is conducting the preliminary design and environmental study of Black Mountain Boulevard. A number of alternatives, including a no build alternative, were developed and evaluated. The community provided input on alternatives at the Spring 2012 public workshops as well as through the project website. Based upon the input received and the environmental and engineering analyses completed to date, the alternatives analysis will be presented to the community at the public open house.

The community is encouraged to visit the project website at www.blackmountainblvd.com to preview the materials prior to attending the public open house. Meeting attendees will be able to talk one-on-one with project team members.
